Continuing Review Forr DIBC Protocols

The IBC may approverotocols for up to three years O duration; however, submission to and approbe of the a continuing review of m is required annually durther protoco protoco protoco.

This form was deloped to obtain information about study experiences to dateassist then stitutional Biosafety Committee IBC) in their review of approved research. Continuing review of active protocols is as important as the initial review. It is only1 (e) 16 (iv2m BT 46 0 0 46 330 218 Tm /TT1 1 Tf () Tj ET Q q 0.24 0 0 0.24

List the host-vector systems used in your lab:
Provide a brief update on the progress made in achieving the specific aims of the protocol.