

Wayne Harding Finding Sense in the Nonsense

President Rose, Members of The College, and Guests,

Thank you all for the love and support that was needed to get us to this momentous day.

And to the Class of 2021 congratulations are in order! It is exciting that we

Wayne Harding Finding Sense in the Nonsense

Bowdoin acceptance letter, with the conversations with family how to navigate the uncertainty and excitement of the college experience ahead, with figuring out where to the first day of orientation. It may be easy to forget, but there is plenty to think about at that moment in time, especially in the year 2021