

Maine Center for Economic Policy.

- Governing Snowmobilers in Multiple-Use Landscapes: Swedish and Maine (USA) Cases. 2004 David Vail and T. Heldt. Ecological Economics.48: 469-483
- Snowmobiling in Maine: Past Successes, Future Challenges. 2002. Maine Policy Review, 11:2 pp. 130-140.
- Institutional Factors Affecting the Scale and Structure of Tourism in Dalarna (Sweden) and Maine (USA), 2000. David Vail & T. Heldt Current Issues in Tourism. 3:4 (283-324)
- Property Rights and Sustainable Nature Tourism: Institutional Adaptation and Maladaptation in Dalarna (Sweden) and Maine (USA). 2000. David Vail and L. Hultkrantz. Ecological Economics, 35 (223-242).
- The Living Countryside: Maintaining Sweden's Agrarian Landscape. 1996. in W. Lockeretz, ed.8.05side:

2002.

-and-

"We must move from piecemeal environmental policies to green plans." 4 January 2002.

"Three trends are threatening the sustainability of Maine's forests," with James St. Pierre 31. August 2001.

"Dialogue needed on sustainable tourism in 'Vacationland.'" 29 June 2001.

"Maine sustainability 25 606BT/F1 11 Tf1 04.9 vonl 0(m)28(e5(b(i)5(ac)-10(e)-10(m)28s D)2-10(t)2810(bi)5 Mee)0(bi)5

Maine Consortium for Food Self-Reliance (1980).

"Soil Management on Organic Farms in Maine", with Michael Rozyne, Maine Organic Farmer and Gardener, 6:4 (July/August, 1979).

Past Academic Positions:

Visiting Scholar, Royal Swedish Academy of Sciences, Beijer International Institute for Ecological Economics, Stockholm, 1999, 2001

Director of Environmental Studies, Bowdoin College, 1996-99.

Chair, Bowdoin College Economics Department, 1978-82, 1986-89.

University of Maine System, Graduate Faculty, adjunct professor (1984, 1993, 1995-97).

Visiting Professor, Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences, Department of Economics (1986, 1989, 1994).

Executive Board, Society for Advancement of Socio-economics (1991-93).

Associate, United Nations University, World Institute for Development Economics Research, Transfer and Traditional Societies Helsinki, Finland (1985-1989).

Editorial Board, Review of Radical Political Economy (1976-78, 1984-86).

Visiting Scholar, Food Research Institute, Stanford University (Summer 1977).

Rockefeller Foundation Research Fellow, Makerere University, Uganda (1968-70).

Past Advisory, Commission and Board Positions:

Coastal Enterprises, Inc (a c.d.f.i.), board of directors, 2010-2019, chair of policy committee

Maine Center for Economic Policy, Board of Directors 1994-2009 (founding member)

Maine Commissioner of Agriculture, Stewart Smith, Consultant on Milk Price Regulation, (1980).
 The Agricultural Marketing Project, Nashville, TN, consultant (1979-80).
 Maine Organic Farmers and Gardeners Association, Research Committee (1979-1985), Marketing committee
 (1978-80), Legislation Committee (1977-80).

Gubernatorial Appointee, Maine Food and Farmland Study Commission (1978-79).

Maine Consortium for Food Self-Reliance (1976-81). Founding member

Foundation for Permanent Agriculture (1977-79). Turstee.

Maine Commissioner of Agriculture, Joseph Williams, Consultant on Small Farm Programs and Direct Marketing,
 (1976-78).

East African Community, Common Market Secretariat, Agricultural Economics Advisor, Arusha, Tanzania, (1972-73).

U.N. International Labor Office, Appropriate Technology Consultant, Tanzania Intermediate Technology Project, Arusha (1972-73).

Uganda Ministry of Planning, Agricultural Sector Planning Team. Third Five Year Plan (1969-70).

Research Grants:

National Science Foundation, 2012.15. EPSCoR Grant, Feasibility of Perennial Grass as a Biomass Feedstock in Northern Maine.

The Betterment Fund. 2010-11. abel.

Broadreach Foundation, 2009. Amenity investments and tourism destination development, Maine Center for Economic Policy

Northern Forest Partnership. 2009-10. MECEP Amenity Investment study

Axel Wenner Gren Foundation (Sweden), rural community development, sustainable nature-based tourism.

Visiting scholar housing grants: 1994, 1999, 2002, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2009.

Dalarna University, Transport and Society Program,. 2002. research on tourism and land use management.

Swedish Forestry and Agricultural Research Council. 1998-99. Nature-based tourism and rural development.

Maine Community Foundation. 2005-09. Tourism and community development: Spreading Prosperity to All of Maine.

Ford and Mott Foundations. 1995-97. Human resources and rural development. Maine Center for Economic Policy

Fulbright-Hays Senior Research Grant. 1989. Swedish agricultural policy. Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences

Mainewatch Institute. 1987. The Future of Maine's Forest Resources.

United Nations University. 1986-1989. Forest Management Systems in Industrial Nations. WIDER Helsinki.

National Endowment for the Humanities. 1986. Summer Stipend. Sweden's Land Ethic and Farmland Preservation.

Maine Humanities Council, Humanities and Public Policy Grant. 1983-1985. "Family Farms in the Web of Community."

Foundation for Permanent Agriculture. 1982. Study of agricultural producer cooperatives in Maine.

Fulbright Travel Grant, Yugoslavia. 1981. Study of Croatian agro-industrial kombinats.

United Methodist Church. 1981. farm-community ties.